RINGMASTER

MEET THE HORSE SHOW JUDGE

Raymond R. Clarke
Vancouver, B.C.

Noted Canadian horseman Raymond R. Clarke of Vancouver arrived in Edmonton May 22 to judge events in the city's annual Spring Horse Show which begins May 23.

A recognized judge of the Canadian and American Horse Show Associations, Mr. Clarke has gained an enviable reputation in North America. He started his career in riding at six years of age, and his life has since been centred on the breeding, schooling and judging of light horses.

Mr. Clarke has managed the Fellows stables of hunters, jumpers and polo ponies, schooled hunters and jumpers for the late Col. R. S. Chaplin of the 10th Royal Hussars, and was instructor of equitation and schooling of hunters and jumpers for the Vancouver Riding Club.

He is a member of the regional committee of the Canadian Horse Shows Association (Zone 5), chairman of the ring committee and member of the light horse section of the Pacific National Exhibition and is a director of the American Saddle-bred Association of British Columbia.

Mr. Clarke will judge events throughout the Edmonton Spring Horse Show, from May 23 to May 27. Sponsored by the Edmonton Exhibition Association and the Northern Alberta Light Horse Association, the show will be in the Gardens each afternoon and evening.

Compliments of CHRISTENSEN AND MACDONALD LTD.

Class 71—REINING EVENT: Open. To be judged 75% performance and 25% rider suitability to horse. From the starting point the rider runs to the first stake, turns it right, runs back to the second stake turns it left, runs back to the third stake, turns it right and runs back to the fourth stake turning it left. He then runs to the first barrel, goes completely around to the right. He then runs down to the far barrel turning it to the left, around the log to the right, and over to the last stake going 1-½ times around it to the left. He then makes a sharp turn to the right and runs his horse out ending with a full sliding stop. From here he must back up 10 to 15 feet in a straight line and finishes by WALKING off the field. This event must be done at a lope. Points will be docked for changing gaits, knocking down stakes or barrels, and over-reining horse.

NOTE: No bat or tie down of any type shall be allowed.
